"Children of the Sun Drum Troupe"

Sponsored by Deaf Education and Families (DEAF)

The Milwaukee Center for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing "Children of the Sun Drum Troupe" is the first and only known performing Deaf and Hard of Hearing drum troupe. This troupe uses African rhythms and dance to engage and encourage audience participation. The Children of the Sun Drum Troupe is an inspiration for all individuals to overcome challenges. Join the Hand-N-Hand families at this unique performance!

Roots-N-Wings

Joleen Hunkins and Leigh Wiitanen, Educational Interpreters

This eight-week pilot program has been created to teach HNH children age six and older the basic roots of sign language while encouraging participants to spread their wings and feel comfortable using the language.

Children will have the opportunity to learn sign language naturally through games, stories and fun activities highlighted with opportunities to interact with members of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing communities.

Monday Nights, January 26 – March 16, 2009 6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

Conversational Sign Language

Marie S. Heidemann, Pediatric Occupational Therapist

Don't tie your fingers up in knots...come and try your hand at signing! This 8 week class is open to anyone who has had at least a beginning level sign language class. It will expand your knowledge from one-word signing to sentences. Get ready to feel comfortable talking about topics from greetings to emergencies, daily living, and special occasions while using the basics of ASL.

Monday Nights, February 2 – March 30, 2009 6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

The cost for the class is $25.00 per adult. Class fees are waived for HNH families.
Registration for the class is due by February 1, 2009.
